Additional information

Additional information: Hotel Hadjiev is the best family hotel in Dobrinishte (Bansko region, in Bulgaria). It offers cozy and comforting accommodation to its guests and is equally appropriate for small family vacations and larger groups get-together.

You will enjoy natural beauty of the Pirin mountain, one of the oldest and highest mountains on the Balkans. Pirin - and Bansko - are the top local choice for skiing, trekking and all other winter sports. Bansko is overpriced and overbooked. Coming to stay in Dobrinishte you will get affordable rates and will be only 6 km from Bansko.

Dobrinishte is also a place to get in touch with the unique local culture, customs and history; to try the curative effect of the hot mineral springs; taste the local cuisine and red wine; and for the lovers of the winter sports there are dozens of ski treks at Bezbog chalet and in Bansko, very close by.

The hostess at hotel Hadjiev is Milanka Hadjieva, in business for over 10 years. She will always be happy to meet you and sit you comfortably in the tavern near the fireplace...and she will do her best to assure your pleasant stay.

Tasty dishes for breakfast, lunch and dinner will be served for you upon request, in front of the fireplace at the tavern on the ground floor.

And the best part: you will get good and free home-made red wine from the house's private wine-cellar, as long as supplies last!

"Hotel Hadjiev" is situated in the village of Dodriniste, only 6 km South of the most popular ski resort in Bulgaria, Bansko. The hotel has three floors, plus the ground floor, where the tavern and kitchen are located. On the first floor there is also a 20-person large hospitality room for gets together, conversations, coffee and drinks.

"Hotel Hadjiev" offers accommodations in seven differently arranged room styles. Four of the rooms have 2 single beds each. Three other rooms are arranged with beds to accommodate three people each. There is also one suite available, for 4 people. All rooms are spacious, bright and airy!
