Additional information

Additional information: Location:
Panoramically situated in the South end of Bansko, along the West bank of the river that gave its name, Glazne, the komplex offers a seamless mixture of local tradition, comfort and western-style service.

Description:
The family villas are fascinating for their typical Bansko architecture, while the interior is a perfect combination between modern style and luxury. On the ground floor you have a small tavern, sauna, WC and a bath with shower . Going up to the first floor you will find a beautiful furnished living room with soft furniture, a table, a fireplace (firewood is supplied by the hotel), a TV set with satellite channels, a telephone with automatic access to long distance and international lines. In the kitchen, separate from the living room, there are a table and 8 chairs, a refrigerator with mini-bar and other basic cooking facilities.

Room's description:

Bedrooms are on the second floor, one of them

equipped with a double bed and the other with two separate beds. Each has its own bath with a tube and hairdryer. There are also a toilet table with a mirror and a stool, a TV set with satellite channels, a telephone with automatic access to long distance and international lines, night illumination, a radio alarm clock, a wardrobe, a living corner with two chairs and a round table in each.
