Additional information

Additional information: The Pamporov's House is nestled in the Rhodopi Mountain, at the foothills of Snejanka peak – the starting point of Pamporovo ski slopes. The house overlooks one of the seven Smolyan lakes, which gave the name of the village it is settled in – Ezerovo. Sofia is 240 km away and Plovdiv – just 95.

The Pamporov's House is about 5 km from downtown Smolyan. At just two kilometers distance is the two-seat chair lift that takes you up to Snejanka peak.

Here you will find a house filled with family traditions and country comfort. You will experience a vacation at a peaceful, secluded place while enjoying the most magnificent panoramic view of the great Rhodopi Mountain. Sun, pure mountain air and beautiful nature blend together to create conditions for a year-round recreation, sport and tourism. The Pamporov's House provides all you are looking for in a getaway - cozy rooms, intimate ambiance, unparalleled views, traditional organic food and an array of opportunities for outdoor activities.
