Additional information

Additional information: Originally constructed in the 19th century, the building of Hostel Pashov was recently restored in the summer of 2004. Located on Gurko street in the town of Veliko Tarnovo - a “living” historical and architectural record of the old days, it is a true representative of the traditional Bulgarian spirit of that time. Incorporating nowadays’ conveniences with old time’s peaceful enchantment, it will turn your vacation into an enriching and invaluable experience.
