Additional information

Additional information: This fine hotel offers excellent conditions for pleasant holidays as well as facilities, which will meet all tourists' requirements. The hotel is situated in the central part of Rhodopi mountain in the village Stoikite and only 5 km far from the famous Bulgarian resort Pamporovo, 85 km south of Plovdiv (Bulgaria's second big city) and 240 km far from the capital Sofia. The altitude of the hotel is 1650 m above the sea level, while Snezanka, the highest peak in the mountain is on 1926 m above the sea level.

A ski run with a length of 1,5 km is situated near the hotel. The upper and the middle part of the run are suitable for good skiers and the lower part is good for beginners. The summer season is challenging time too. For this time the hotel offers mountain family and ecological tours.

There are very good conditions for family rest, for skiing, for organizing of business meetings and forums.
