Additional information

Additional information: "Neither the famous Ollioules gorges in Provence, the Pincarbo defile in Spain, the Alps, nor the most ancient mountains of Tirol and Switzerland possess anything that could be compared with what I have seen in Belogradchik".

Gerome Blanqui, French traveler, 1841

The picturesque town Belogradchik is located in Northwest Bulgaria, between Vidin and Montana. It is famous with its natural phenomenon Belogradchick rocks - fantastic formations of red sandstone and conglomerate, from which nature has sculpted incredible forms of people and animals, and each one has its own legend. Unique nature carries visitors in a magical world and leaves them unforgettable memories.

Situated in the western part of Belogradchik, guesthouse "Drakite" offers excellent conditions for rest on separate floor with three rooms and shared bathroom. Two of the rooms have two single beds each, the third one is with double bed. Each room has cable TV and wireless hi-speed internet, if necessary guests can use computer of the owner. From the balconies there is magnificent view towards Danube plain and the preceding hills, and when the weather is clear even the Carpathians can be seen.

The cars of the guests can be parked safely in the yard of the house. There is also laundry room with washing machine, iron and iron-board. On demand we can arrange transportation from the town's bus station, railway station Oreshech and airport Sofia. We also offer hunting and fishing outings with a guide (after pre-arrangement). For larger groups there is transportation with a van to Magura cave, as well as to other interesting sites outside the town. Experienced guide can show you incomparable views on the ecotracks, and many beautiful places in the region. For the astronomy fans we can arrange a visit to the local observatory.

Belogradchik is located 180 km northwest from Sofia, if you go through Petrohan passage, or 215 km through Vitinia passage (on international road E79). With a car the road takes about 3 hours. You can get to the town by bus from Sofia for about 4 hours, or by train to the near railway station Oreshech and then by taxi or bus to Belogradchik.
