About the House Artes

A tale of rocks telling many different stories. The best place to rest and relax among the unique environment of Belogradchik is guest house "Artes".

The house is in the town center, looming high above the town square. It offers magnificent view of the town and the surrounding cliffs. If you're in the mood to either relax or party - a birthday or a romantic dinner, "Artes" is your place. Welcome!

Guest house "Artes" in Belogradchik - an amazing combination of a centuries old town, beautiful nature and the hospitality guest house "Artes" provides. Should you wish to have good time for some reason (birthday celebration, holiday or a regular weekend, etc.), romantic vacation or just go sightseeing the wondrous cliffs around town, guest house "Artes" will always be keeping open doors for you. We welcome you!

First floor:

The first floor is designed for fun. It consists of a large hall divided in two - a living hall with a fireplace, cable TV and upholstered furniture; and a dining hall. The dining hall has a kitchen box with everything necessary to prepare your own meals and beverages and have a pleasant and comfortable vacation. It is equipped with built-in ceramic kitchen appliances, microwave oven, fridge, laundry machine, and a bar.
The dining hall is connected to a large (15 m2) terrace which is ideal for having a dinner or a party out in the open. The magnificent view of the surrounding landscape - hills, mountain peaks, lakes and even the silhouette of the Romanian highlands - helps you relax and enjoy your vacation thoroughly.

Second floor:

The second floor is mostly bedrooms. There are two rooms with two beds each and a single room with both a bedroom suite and a single bed suitable for a family of three for instance. Each room has independent air conditioning and a TV set with cable TV. The second floor also has a bathroom and two balconies there that provide splendid view towards the town and its surroundings.
