Additional information: The hotel-restaurant The Last Century is situated in the Renaissance quarter in the central part of Shumen. The building attracts with its XVIIIth century architecture. The house has been a cultural monument since the Renaissance – it was Racho Rachev's home, the founder of the pedagogical education in Shumen. The house has kept the spirit of the past. Now it is renewed and restored in the old townhall style. We built The Last Century in this century.

Near the hotel-restaurant The Last Century is Dobri Voynikov's home-museum, Pancho Vladigerov's home-museum. The oldest church in Shumen – "St. Ascension" is near the restaurant; also the second biggest mosque "Tombul" on the Balkan peninsula is situated 500m far from the restaurant.

The hotel-restaurant The Last Century is near the Municipality of Shumen, The Regional Court, Tax Department of Shumen, The Historical Museum, the Police Office, The Central Post Office. 500m. far from the hotel-restaurant is the UBB (United Bulgarian Bank)- branch of Shumen, Alliance Bulgaria, Raiffeisenbank and others. The fitness center "Yunak" and the SPA center "Buket" /sauna, solarium, hair-dresser's, manicure, massages, professional make-up and others/ are right next to the hotel-restaurant The Last Century.

Situating in the central part of Shumen, The Last Century complex is extremely suitable for the business-guests of Shumen. The unique interior in the old townhall style will give you the opportunity to feel the spirit of the past and turn your vacation, business-dinner, family celebration, a night into an unforgettable experience combined with the spirit and romance of the last century and the present time facilities.

The Last Century Complex will make you come again!
