Additional information:

The house is suitable for family holidays away from home, for team building or active recreation amidst nature, silence and calm, in the atmosphere of the typical Rhodope mountain village.
Upper Arda is a small village with no more than 150 inhabitants. The region is definitely the right choice for people who want to escape from the noise and stress of the big cities. The place is the starting point to a number of options for trips and picnics in the mountain. The spring of the Arda River is also in close proximity to the hamlet. Those who love the walking tours, the horse riding, hunting and fishing will definitely fall in love with the village!

Extra services:
The house is situated 1100 m above the sea level amidst picturesque views in a Southern corner close to the border with Greece. There is a local heating, a hall with kitchenware - self service, a big yard, animal corner and a veranda with an outdoor fireplace, where you can make barbeque in the furnace.
Upon request you can try miscellaneous specialties from the Rhodopean cuisine. The lamb is cooked in the furnace or roasted on the spit.
Don't miss the trips to the nearby picnic places – “The Grandpa's River” or “The Uzunov Stone”!
The Arda river basin or the upstream of Arda River is an area developing well as a region for hiking, biking, cave, horse, hunting and fishing tourism.
The routes take you to: the spring of the River Arda, Arda peak, Kom peak, the village of Mogilitsa (the Agushev's Konak), Uhlovitsa cave and caves for extreme cave tourism (Nadarska and Garganyovitsa caves), the Beans Museum and the Dairy Inn in Smilyan village, the Waterfalls canyon near Kiselchovo and so on.
Area suitable for: Relaxation, tourism, walking, fishing, swimming, wine tasting, mountain activities, mountain biking, cultural sightseeing, historical sightseeing.
Distance to the closest bigger town: 30 km to Smolyan
