Additional information

Additional information: In complexul de odihna vechi bulgar „Peina” puteti scapa de viata zilnica incordata. Localitatea este situata in zona subbalcanica la 400 de metri altitudine deasupra nivelului marii intr-o regiune extrem de curata si ecologica in centrul Bulgariei.

The complex will bring you back in the atmosphere of the middle of 19 century and will present you the material and mental culture of the Bulgarian people living that time.

The village of Peina is situated close to the ancient Roman market-place Diskoduratera (even today you can see remains) which had very important part for the economical development of provinces Thrace and Mizia. The village is also known in History with the fact that the fighters from the band of Pop Hariton and Bacho Kiro (famous Bulgarian revolutionary) passed through it on their way to Dryanovo Monastery in the rebellious spring of 1876.

The hosts of Old-Bulgarian holiday complex 'Peina' Veleslava Moravleva and Gencho Penev have saved the authentic style of the Bulgarian national revival not only in restoring the houses but also inside where the interior is influenced by the lifestyle 150-200 years ago – with restored old furniture, fireplace, tavern and the drawing-room where you can see ancient artifacts and weapons. Here the revival style is combined with the conveniences of now. The complex has at its disposal beds for 25 people

Old-Bulgarian holiday complex 'Peina' consists of two houses named Complex 'Peina' and House 'Mulberry'. The complex has at its disposal beds for 25 people – Complex 'Peina' has 16 beds and House 'Mulberry' has 9 beds. Here you will be fascinated by the unique combination of authentic style of the Bulgarian national revival, modern conveniences, cosiness and tasty cooking.
