Who are we?

We are Kath and Allen Maher and we come from England. In 2005 we decided to move to Bulgaria, and now run our small business. We have been overwhelmed by the hospitality and generosity of the Bulgarian people, and remain fascinated by the breathtaking countryside, traditions and culture. Although the country itself is swiftly adapting to change, throughout the villages you will still encounter people riding donkey and cart to work, eating homegrown fruit and vegetables, homemade cheeses, yogurts, and jam.

Bulgaria offers a wealth of history and folklore, and we are sure you will have a very enjoyable and memorable visit.

What we offer.

We know there is much to learn from this yet unexplored part of the world. We want you to get the very best from your holiday and would strongly recommend that you take advantage of the many interesting and varied activities we have available.
