Additional information

Additional information: Veliko Tarnovo lies in the centre of Northern Bulgaria between Sofia and Varna. It is the old capital of Bulgaria and was the centre of the second Bulgarian kingdom in the middle ages. The town is perched on the side of hills overlooking the valley of the river Yantra. With pretty cobbled streets traversing the town one can get spectacular views in every direction; down to the river, across to the university, the monument to the brothers Assen, and Tsaravets, an immense series of fortifications dominating one end of the town and the host of the famous and unique light show which is staged at regular intervals throughout the year. There are; museums, churches, a cathedral, national revival style houses, charming shops and restaurants, whilst further afield lies the village of Arbanasi, the roman town of Nicopolis, and several spectacular and historic monasteries. Villa Loranna is a beautiful large 3 Bedroom centrally heated villa in the village of Malki Chiflik on the outskirts of Veliko Tarnovo. It sleeps 8-10 adults and has a plasma television and luxurious furniture in the 60 sq meter open plan lounge/dining room, which is ideal for parties or small functions, as there is seating for over 20 people. A broadband internet connection is also available. There is a well equipped kitchen with; cooker, fridge freezer, microwave, washing machine, etc. There are 2 bathrooms. Outside there is a 10 meter swimming pool with a Jacuzzi and pool house, large garden and a panoramic view of Veliko Tarnovo which is only 4 kilometers away. There is ample parking both inside and outside the property grounds. This property is ideally placed to combine exploring the city of Veliko Tarnovo and the countryside around it. Then at the end of the day after a five minute drive from the town it allows you to totally relax in peace and tranquility away from the hustle and bustle of the town.
