Additional information: Hotel Pomorie is picturesquely situated above the sea, the 3-star Pomorie hotel complex bears the name of one of the oldest towns on the Black sea coast, which was founded in the 4th century BC with the ancient name of Anchialo. Pomorie is a peaceful small coastal town chiefly noted for its vine-growing, mud baths, salt production and hospitality.

The hotel Pomorie occupies an unusual location - literally jutting out from the shore to the sea! If you are looking for a peaceful relaxing holiday then the hotel Pomorie is your best choice, since it offers tranquility (all rooms with a sea view) and a variety of health spa treatments. The treatments have proven to be successful in easing many health complaints and ailments. For example disorders of the peripheral nervous system, disturbances of the locomotory system, sciatica, arthritis, arthrosis, rheumatism, skin diseases and recovery periods following traumas and fractures. The treatments are modern and supervised by qualified medical staff.

The health centre, which includes a heated sea water swimming pool (25m./13m.) with access to outside sun beds, also has an outdoor swimming pool, sauna and solarium.

The health centre also offers the following:

Mud application and bath

Physiotherapy- dry, underwater and vibro massages

Talassotherapy , pressuretherapy

Inhalations and herbal bath, aromatherapy with sea brine from Pomorie salt lake, in combination with Bulgarian herbs.

The hotel has souvenir shop, exchange desk, beauty saloon and tourist office where trips around the country are organizing to acquaint you with ancient monuments, old museum towns, modern seaside resorts and a visit to a Bulgarian villages. The hotel complex includes restaurants, cocktail bar and disco.
