The town of Elhovo is located in the southeast part of Bulgaria, 30 km away from Lesovo checkpoint at the Turkish border. It is 37 km away from the town of Yambol and 100 km away from Bourgas. The guesthouse is good for having a rest and for alternative tourism as well. It is newly built on an attractive place at the end of the town of Elhovo near the bank of the river Tundja and a public swimming pool with its own summer bar. The house has a fully equipped kitchen and a spacious dining room appropriate for family holidays, birthday parties, romantic dinners and all kinds of parties. For those who would like to hire the house catering could be offered (proper decoration of the dining room according to the occasion, menu of the dinners and music). ACCOMMODATION. We can accommodate up to 12 people. The house has three rooms for guests with a separate bathroom and WC. Two of the rooms have twin beds and an extra bed and one of them has a double bed and an extra bed too. When there are more people, three of them could be accommodated in the living room. Each rooms has a plasma TV, cable TV, air-conditioner and wireless Internet. There is a fireplace with a central heating system in the living room for the cold winter days.
