Additional information

Additional information: The Lodge is a 4 star boutique hotel beautiful to look at, and dedicated to provide ultra-luxurious ski holidays for the champagne-and-CEO set; it climbs a mountain every season to keep its clientele happy. Standards are uncompromising, and it is so spoiling that the very thought of returning home each evening will have you skiing harder.

The Lodge Hotel is a luxurious as it is diverse – and if you're looking for somewhere really memorable to stay for your holiday, you won't be disappointed if you book here.

It was built in 2006 by Octopus Developments Ltd. which is owned by an award winning developer from central London. The Lodge Hotel will be promoted by young and well experienced abroad team guided by German management. The Lodge is a desirable residence in Borovets with interiors that combine traditional elegance with modern comfort.

The prime location affords easy access to the main ski gondola and the resort centre. Borovets is in The Rila National Forest and in the footsteps of natural wonders such as the highest mountain peak Mussala, The 7 Rila Lake and historic buildings including the Rila Monastery.
