Additional information

Additional information: Ruzhina House is located in the heart of the unique architectural reserve Zheravna in the Eastern Balkan mountains, 14 kilometers south of Kotel. The house offers the tranquility and quiet of the mountain so you can experience an unforgettable holiday in the romantic surroundings of 19th century Bulgarian architecture. With its stylish carved wood furniture, Ruzhina house combines the spirit of the past with all the amenities and luxuries of the present. Just a minute away from Yordan Yovkov's house-museum, the house will satisfy all your requirements and whims for a fulfilling and varied holiday. You will fall in love with the living room and its ashmak-hearth, with the two cozy bedrooms, with the spacious verandah-like balcony and its spectacular view of the mountain, with the shady patio and its gorgeous flower garden and stone water-fountain, with the comfortable lounge and barbeque shelter. The beautiful natural surroundings will tempt you with hiking trails among venerable woods, with herbs and mushrooms to be picked, with horse riding opportunities, while Zheravna will offer you its numerous museums and galleries. Your Ruzhina hosts, too, are plotting some nice surprises to leave you with even more unforgettable memories!
