Additional information:	Hotel Boliari is located in the centre of the old town of Veliko Tarnovo, the ancient capital of Bulgaria. It is situated right next to the Archeological museum, the church st. Spass from the 16th c., and the building of the first parliament of Bulgaria, which is now turned into a museum named “The Renaissance and the Constituent Assembly”. It is on the main tourist road toward Gurko street, only 20m away from the main street of the city connecting the centre with the famous fortress on Tzarevetz hill. Being at the heart of old Veliko Tarnovo 150m from the Tzarevetz fortress, the hotel is with aneasy access and offers a great ambience to its guests. The great view toward the old town, Yantra river and “Konnicite”, the SPA centre and the Lobby Bar make the quiet and cosy hotel Boliari a preferable destination for tourists for both business and pleasure.

The cosy interior of the rooms is underlined by every detail and predisposes to an adequate relax. Quality damasks in light tones of colours and airily curtains create the desired warmth and complete the great view toward the old town.
To every customer of the hotel is offered a wide variety of services. At the disposal of all guests are a two-floor Lobby Bar, SPA centre, safety-deposit box at the reception desk, currency exchange, laundry services, taxi and other transportation services. Taking care for your complete satisfaction and a fully enjoyable stay in our hotel we offer you detailed information for Veliko Tarnovo, Arbanassi and the region, the cultural and night life of the city.

We have a beautiful two-floor Lobby Bar at hotel Boliari. Its comfortable sofas and the unique architecture create a preferable atmosphere and an amusement place for the young people and tourists of Veliko Tarnovo.

For your complete holiday Hotel Boliari offers a quality relax in its SPA center. Feel relieved by a professional massage combined with the warmth of the Infrared Sauna and enjoy the pleasure of being in the six-seat Jacuzzi.
